To
MR. FRANK A. BLOWE
A real friend of the class of 1961

A friendly smile and a helpful hand contribute to his congeniality.

Plaid jacket, striped tie, and many books — that's Mr. Blowe.

His clear explanation made everything seem easy.

DEDICATION

Through his work with us, both as a science teacher and a hockey coach, Mr. Frank Blowe has won our sincere respect. Here is a man who stands in the company of those who, in the words of Chaucer, "gladly teach."

His sense of fun made our study of science enjoyable as well as informative. Who can forget his analogies which made use of sports to clarify chemistry, such as the relative position of players in a football game to that of molecules in a substance?

Not so humorous were his unrelenting efforts to obtain ice for his hockey squad. Many a night did he brave the cold, bitter winter air to flood the hockey rinks, only to have the fickle Berkshire weather bring rain to ruin the ice or snow to cover it. Those tiny, geometrically-shaped figures brought dismay, not beauty, to his scientific mind.

His affable manner and his intensely human qualities of mind and heart have endeared him to all who have associated with him. It is with pride that the class of 1961 dedicate our yearbook to a man who has dedicated his life as a teacher to us and to the many who will follow us.

FOREWORD

Two-hundred years have come and gone since the founding of our city, Pittsfield, Massachusetts. Never again will eager students plod for miles on cold, bleak mornings to classes in a shivery one-room school house. Never again will the faculty, so necessary for guidance and encouragement, consist of one — instead of many. Yes, time has a remarkable way of inevitably creeping forward, hiding the past beneath the thin veil of the future. So it is that in an attempt to recapture the fleeting moments of another era, we, the class of 1961, are proud to add our share of recognition to a most deserving city. To you, Pittsfield, the center of our joys and rewards, we dedicate our yearbook on your Bicentennial.

ALMA MATER

Words by Esther Kierstead '38 and Friend Kierstead '39

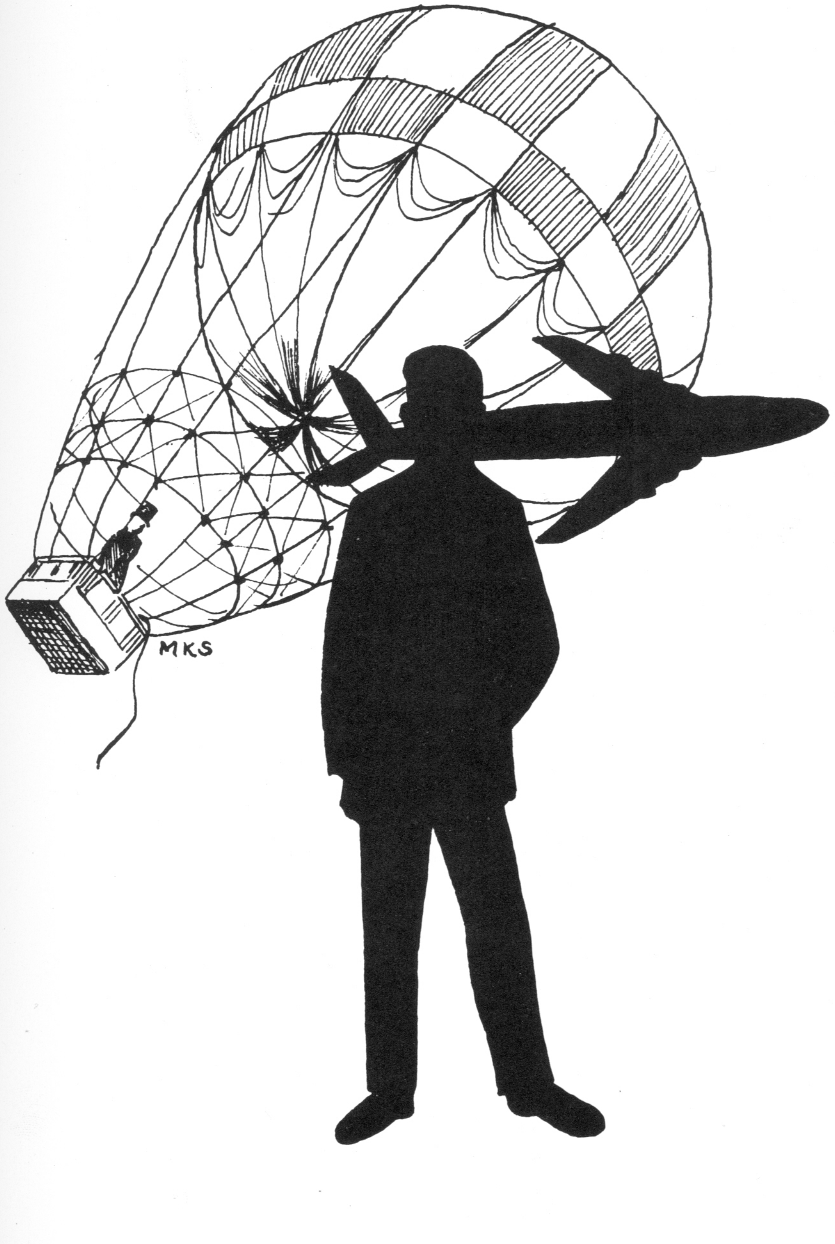

Tune: "All Through the Night"

Guardian elm trees cast their shadows
O'er thy ivied walls;
Sons and daughters ever loyal
Throng thy honored halls.
Pittsfield High School, Pittsfield High School,
Alma Mater dear,
Help us to preserve thy honor
Through each coming year.

Great has been thy former record,
Greater will it be
As the future generations
Sing their praise to thee.
Proud are we who through thy portals
Into life do pass;
Help us ever to be worthy,
Each and every class.

JUNIOR PROM

Under the capable direction of co-chairmen, Mary Collins and Dick Petruzella, our decorating committee transformed the sketches and plans of April into the "Hawaiian Night" of May. Overnight the gym became a Pacific paradise.

Stepping from the gangplank of our cruise ship, we entered a tropical dream. All eyes turned to the palm trees shading the natural lagoon stocked with tropical fish. In the distance fire spurted from our man-made volcano.

To us this was more than just a class dance. The leis of flowers, the exotic palms overhead, the blue lagoon, but most of all the glow of accomplishment — these were the ingredients of a happy memory.

Pittsfield High School's undefeated football season in the fall of 1960 led many partisans to claim all-time greatness for the team that put together the record. This 1960 unit swept to eight consecutive victories, the first perfect record for a modern P. H. S. team.

In an exciting season Pittsfield trailed only once; that occurred in the second game against Northampton. After falling behind 7-0 in the third period, Coach Nick Morris' outfit ignited for three touchdowns in the last eleven minutes to gain an 18-7 win. Other satisfying wins were the 38-0 conquest of Adams and the 46-12 victory over Drury High, the oldest rival.

St. Joseph's offered stubborn resistance in the season finale, but Pittsfield High triumphed 18-7 to clinch the Western Massachusetts Class A Conference title and the Berkshire County championship, both for the second successive year.

Pittsfield started the season with nine veterans. Injuries were numerous, but P. H. S. had such depth that it was not seriously weakened even by the loss of some experienced players.

Ray Woitkowski's frequent scoring runs, Gary Soldato's sharp passing and sparkling field generalship, the line's rugged play, and Pittsfield's extremely able coaching staff were the important contributions in Pittsfield's success.

Woitkowski, Soldato, Captain Dave Giddings, Jimmy Fassell, George Garivaltis, Bruce Walcott, Steve Ciepiela, and Jimmy Hickey were selected on the Eagle's All-Berkshire team. Woitkowski, Soldato, Giddings, Garivaltis and Walcott made the Springfield Republican's All-Conference team.

Following the precedent of the undefeated football team, the Pittsfield High School basketball team swept to the City and the Berkshire County Championships and to third place in the Western Massachusetts Tournament. All in all, it was an exciting basketball year, one which saw our boys defeat the pre-season favorite, Adams High, in both their encounters and clinch the Northern Berkshire title in an exciting 31-30 victory over St. Joseph's of North Adams. In the post-season tournament Mark Belanger, the Berkshire County scoring champion, with Co-Captain Larry Doughty, Bill Nagelschmidt, Fred Taliaferro, Tom Broderick and Dick Permerlani, put on a fine exhibition for those in attendance.

Though the P.H.S. hockey team was defeated in many exciting encounters, the aggressive spirit of our puck men was never diminished. The team, sparked by its leading scorer, Pierre Levesque, and by many senior stalwarts, served up some exciting moments on the rink at the rear of the school.

History

The pre-school gossip session

"Are you sure the cafeteria is four flights up?"

T. G. I. F. (Thank God. It's Friday!)

"Please, Marie! Cadettes don't make mistakes."

On the seventh of September in '58
As humble Sophomores we entered the gate
Of the school we'd inhabit for the next three years.
We were awe-struck, confused and full of fears,
For we knew, like all Sophomores, we did not rate.

All the Seniors considered us hopeless blokes,
And made us the butt of their endless jokes.
Up to the dome we traveled enmasse,
And when we complained they said, "None of your sass!"
But before many days we were wise to each hoax.

Our basketball team was so great that year,
We all felt that we had nothing to fear.
We were tournament bound, on the way to the top;
For a team such as ours, no one could stop.
Yet our very last game saw our hopes disappear.

We found ourselves at the end of that year
With a good deal more spirit and somewhat less fear.
We discovered that our teachers bark, but don't bite,
And that no matter what, they are always right!
Wise was the student to whom that was clear.

Thus we launched ourselves for our high school stay,
And we kept ourselves busy night and day
With homework assignments, with band and with gym,
With Showboat and sports we entered with vim.
We learned how to work, but we knew how to play.

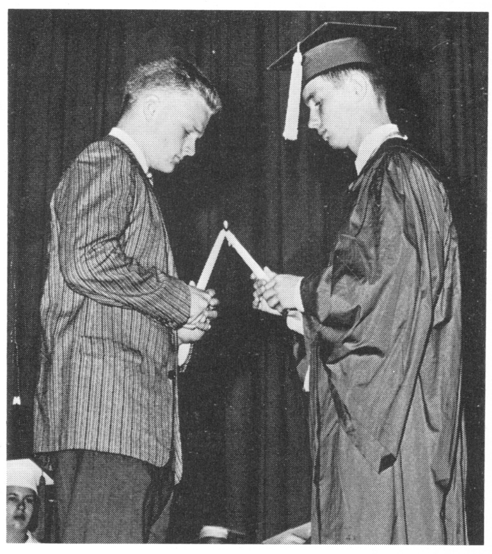

"You called?'

No St. Joe rings here!

Which one's from Hawaii?

Class Day, 1960

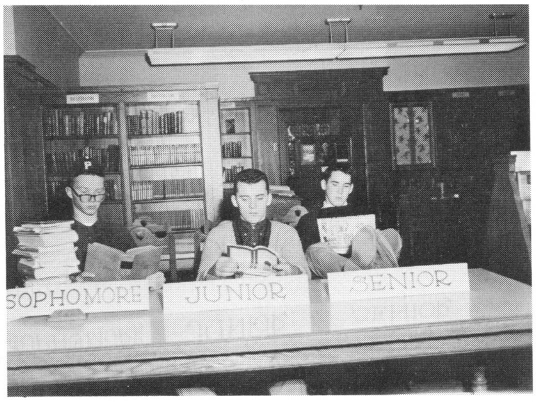

The transition from Sophomore to Junior was fun;
There were many new things now to be done.
Soon after-school sports and the clubs were in swing,
And the cheering at rallies made the corridors ring
As we boosted our players to the honors they won.

To our joy, we in football were never defeated,
For as champions our teams could not be unseated.
And even in basketball we went on to fame,
To the Western Mass. finals our five brought our name.
While in baseball our nine as state champions were greeted.

From the sports to the arts and the stage we must go,
To the Highlands of Scotland, Brigadoon was the show.
There were tartans and bagpipes and a real Highland fling
As our laddies and lassies made P.H.S. ring
With the dancing and song they had worked weeks to know.

Then the day we were longing for finally was here;
We had waited and waited for the rings to appear.
There were red ones and green ones and yellow and blue,
And small ones and large ones, round and square ones too.
"Buy this one!" "No, this one!" was all we could hear.

But all was not well; there were trials to run,
For early in fall P.S.A.T.'s were begun.
And again in warm May the whole class was in arms,
But this time National Merit caused all the alarms.
This racking of brains offered nobody fun.

"What class requires Little Lulu for homework, Don?"

P.H.S.'s information bureau

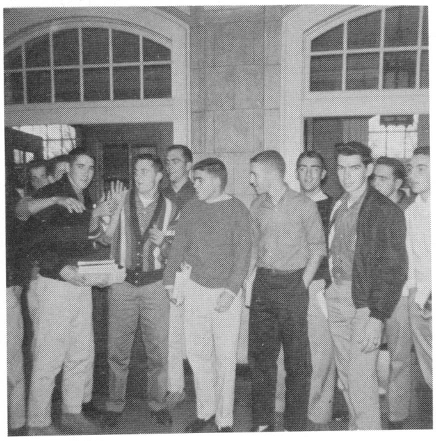

To the strains of "Aloha" on a warm night in May,
We Juniors danced proudly in a Prom that was gay.
Our theme was Hawaii, land of beautiful flowers.
The gym was an island in a matter of hours.
This ended our year in a glorious way.

At last there we all were in another school year.
We were Seniors this time, real top dogs. Give a cheer!
With new activities, new work to be done,
Like the desk and the Dome. "Crack right up! This is fun!"
We were really cool Seniors whom Sophomores fear.

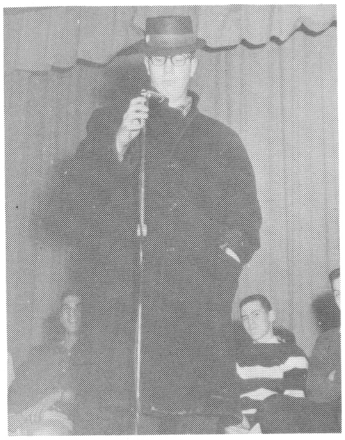

In the grandstands we chanted, "Hit them in the other knee!"
We conquered them all and St. Joseph's with glee.
With our Red and big George, steadfast Dave and swift Jim —
All supported, of course, by the Great Pumpkin —
Pittsfield High, in a sweep, gained complete victory.

In the next few months, there was much to be done:
We made posters and tags and our candidates won.
There were after school sports; there was homework galore.
And we asked, "What did we ever take Typing I for?"
We even bought a book — To Make Trigonometry Fun.

Those college applications we filled out with hope,
What with answering questions at the end of our rope:
"What's your health? What's your height? What's your cleverest trick?
And, pray tell, of what class do you get the most sick?"
(This question gave us a very wide scope.)

Honestly, boys, the walls won't cave in if you go to class!

"Pet" steals material from Steve Allen.

Fancy Nancy makes an appearance at the P.H.S.-St. Joe rally.

"Yippee, we won again!"

"Okay, so what do I do now?"

"Don't worry, Mary Jane. It won't hurt."

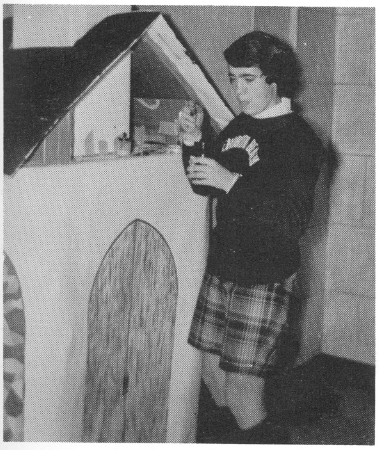

So the month of December soon came to our town
With our fine Christmas program and Barnaby, the clown.
The Variety Show with much talent was stocked,
And with Jay on the program the place really rocked!
The vacation was needed to calm us all down.

'Twas the first of the year, but we were not bored,
As we found ourselves facing the College Board.
Soon after, the library became the place
As with Maplewood Essays and time we did race.
For all that work we deserved a reward.

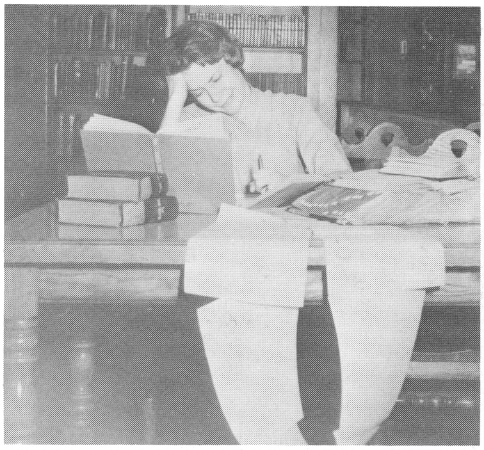

The fun started off with the G.A.A. dance.
Decorations and music held all in a trance.
Then the teachers played Seniors to help the band out,
A game that the teachers turned into a rout,
Though the Seniors maintained it was won by mere chance.

But then some of us "lucky" ones crammed to the gill
For the March College Board, which made us all ill.
Also in March came the Cadette Fashion Show
Such nice looking models, all gals that we know
Wearing clothes guaranteed to make male hearts thrill.

Our roving ambassadors really had fun
At the Cherry Blossom Festival in Washington.
So as not to be bested, our Cadettes followed the band,
And every last one thought Annapolis grand.
Back home, we enjoyed all the tales that they spun.

"Are you going to drink it or paint with it?"

"This is a college application?"

John Robert Powers has nothing on P.H.S.

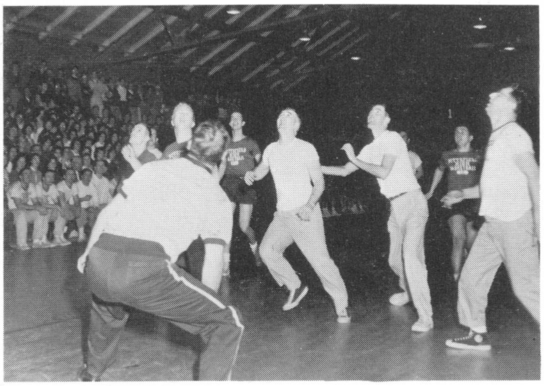

"All togeher now — one, two, three."

And next, at long last, the most wonderful night —
The gym was quite beautiful, all was just right.
The long weeks of hard work had been worth all the doubt
For our Prom, a cool blast, was really far out —
With moonlight and flowers and stardust made bright.

Soon after, came Class Day; as we of sixty-one
Lighted candles for the Juniors, our job now was done.
The excitement kept mounting as to "Pomp and Circumstance"
We practiced the march, trying hard not to dance.
At last here it was — June eighteenth, graduation!

Looking back on our years in old Pittsfield High,
We remember the good things with many a sigh,
Like zap guns and checking lines, sneakers with holes,
That were part of these years right along with our goals.
We will never forget these years that flew by.

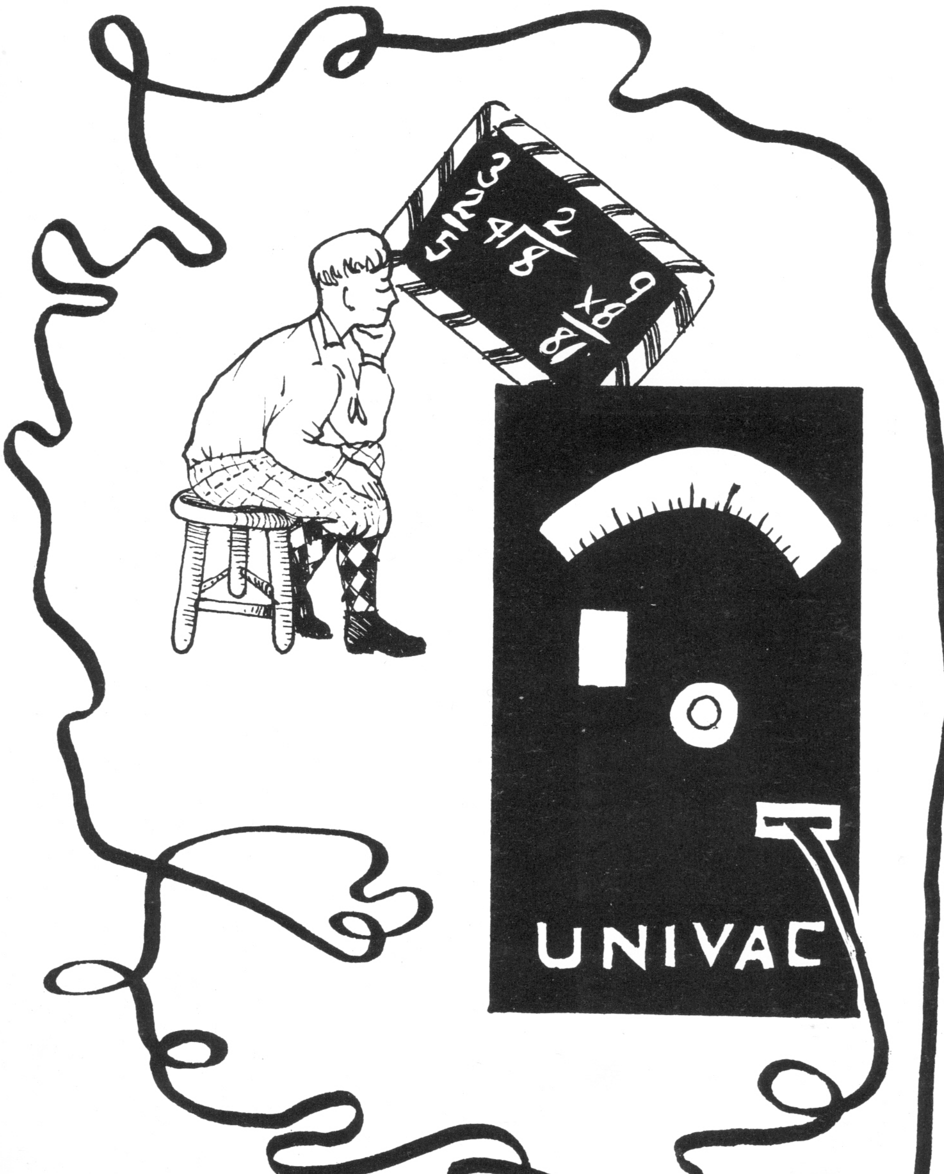

"So where's the ball?"
